Rules & Guidelines

- Safety is First -

  Listen to the directions of the Instructors. Swinging a golf club can be dangerous if you are not paying attention to the players around you – only swing when an instructor gives you permission to do so.

  Never move in front of the mats while students are hitting balls. If you need to leave your station for any reason ask an instructor for assistance.

  Be quite during contests and show respect to other players as they are hitting shots.

- To participate in the junior golf league, the child must complete the junior golf camp or get approval by Instructional Staff.

- To enter into the Advanced Juniors Camp, you must have previous junior golf experience.

Our Mission / Objective

Mission:

Our primary mission is to provide a full-service and accessible platform for junior golfers to learn, grow and play the game golf for many years to come.

As golf instructors, we want to train juniors with the best available techniques and practices available - giving them the tools to better their skills and lower their scores. Although swinging a club is not our only mission, as a friend and advisor we want to give back to the juniors what we have personally gained from the game of golf over the years.

Objective:

We have divided our junior golf program into three main components - junior golf camps, junior leagues, and competitions. What one gains from being involved with the process of learning golf at this level is a growing respect of values, integrity, honesty, and self reliance.

It is our objective to give each participant the opportuntiy to better themselves through these chacteristics and bring a new meaning to the word ‘golf’ for each individual.

values, integrity, honesty & self reliance
