Peter Ostroushko

Date: October 01, 2004

Time: 8:00 PM EST

Backstage Series

There's no doubt Peter Ostroushko is one of the most accomplished instrumentalists and gifted composers of his generation. Peter has spent more than 25 years as a frequent performer on A Prairie Home Companion, and for a few seasons was the popular radio shows musical director. Peter has appeared on Austin City Limits, Late Night with David Letterman, even Mr. Rogers' Neighborhood. His compositions have been performed by orchestras around the world. Ken Burns used music his music for his two PBS documentaries Lewis & Clarke and Mark Twain. Wherever his music is heard, there's another group of fans eager for more.

"One of the finest and possibly the most versatile of the current crop of multi-instrumentalists."
The Boston Globe

Andes Manta

Date: March 06, 2005

Time: 7:00 PM EST

Backstage Series

The vibrant, powerful music of the Andes region of South America is played by Andes Manta, the four Lopez brothers. These natives of the Ecuadorian Andes learned this traditional folk music as it has been learned for thousands of years, passed from father to son and brother to brother. With more than 35 traditional instruments, Andes Manta's energetic music and dance animate Andean religious festivals, blending pre-Colombian and Catholic rituals and provide a rare opportunity for cultural understanding between the peoples of their homeland and North America.
