

Arts for a Region

Regional schools are invited to participate in school performances held at the Jasper Arts Center as space is available. If your school would be interested in high quality performances for a reasonable fee, please call us at the Jasper Arts Center for more information.

For more information on this series or other JCAC educational outreach services and programs call Donna Schepers, JCAC education coordinator, at (812) 482-3070 or email dschepers@ci.jasper.in.us.

The Gruffalo

The Gruffalo, based on the children's story of the same name, will be coming to our stage for regional schools and some family fun. This theatrical performance will be played by the English company, Tall Stories.

This engagement is supported by the Arts Midwest Touring Fund, a program of Arts Midwest, is generously supported by the National Endowment for the Arts with additional contributions from the Indiana Arts Commission.

The Miracle Worker

Date:

Spring Semester 2006

One school performance only at the Jasper Arts Center.

In cooperation with Actors Community Theatre, the JCAC will present a special regional school performance of the original play about Ann Sullivan and Helen Keller.

The Miracle Worker

Date:

Spring semester 2006.

One school performance only at the Jasper Arts Center.

In cooperation with Actors Community Theatre, the JCAC will present a special regional school performance of the original play about Ann Sullivan and Helen Keller.

The New Shanghai Circus

Date: February 22, 2005

Time: One Performance Only - 10:00 a.m. EST

Location: Jasper Arts Center

The stunning art of acrobatics and the celebration of a cultural tradition will feature the Incredible! Acrobats of China. For more information visit <http://www.newshanghaicircus.com>

Andes Manta

Date: March 07, 2005

Time: One Performance Only - 10:00 a.m. EST

Location: Jasper Arts Center

Playing more than 35 traditional instruments, Andes Manta brings the culture of the Andes Mountains to our students. The musicians of Andes Manta believe that through their music they bring a rare opportunity for cultural understanding between the people of their homeland, South America and the people of modern North America. For more information visit <http://www.a-tiberio.com/andesmanta.htm>

The World of Anne Frank

Date: March 11, 2005

Time: 8:30a.m., 9:45a.m., 11:00a.m., & 1:00p.m.

Location: Jasper Middle School

THEATREWORKS USA and Living Voices share the world of Anne Frank and encourage students to discover their personal awareness of stereotypes, prejudice and discrimination in a live multi-media program that brings the audience into the world of Anne Frank, Through The Eyes of a Friend. For more information visit <http://www.theatreworksusa.org>

Chapter 6

Date: January 30, 2006

One school performance only at the Jasper Arts Center.
A Cappella Grand Champions of the National Harmony Sweepstakes.

Junie B. Jones

Date: March 02, 2006 - March 03, 2006

Presented as part of the Education Series, a special performance for elementary students this year will have seats available as the lovable, precocious and outspoken Junie B. Jones stars in this colorful, funny, face-paced musical.

The Diary of Anne Frank

Date: March 10, 2006

Two school performances at the Jasper Arts Center.
For grade 8.

This gripping new adaptation is directed by Stage One's Moses Goldberg, whose 1990's production of the play was hailed as the definitive youth theatre touring version of The Diary of Anne Frank.